

TALES OF NOVIA

Tales of Novia is a collection of interconnected stories inspired by BIPOC creators on TikTok and created by USA Today Best-Selling Author Jessica Cage during the height of the pandemic.

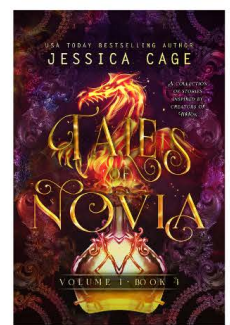

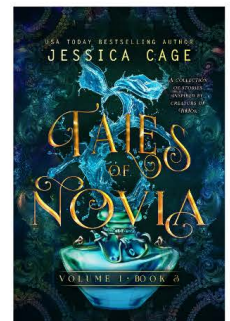

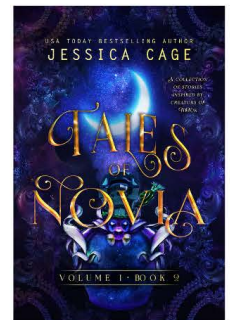

OCTOBER 2022

Georgia, USA, Tales of Novia: Volume One embraced the sense of community during a time when the world was forced into isolation. Like most people during quarantine, Jessica Cage found herself scrolling through the FYP and found that it was filled with inspiration for new places, characters, and adventures. Soon enough, an idea formed. To create a collection of short stories based on the inspiring images she found there. Jessica created and fully funded the world of Novia with the help of the community she built.

Dedicated to her grandmother who passed during the quarantine, Jessica Cage is proud to present the world of Novia through interconnected stories that shows even when the world is burning, community can save us all.

"Tales of Novia is a magnificent collection of character-driven stories. The world is immersive, well-developed, and rich in detail. I felt as if danger was around every corner. It's a magical ecosystem of excitement that will keep you intrigued. Never a dull moment in the land of Novia!"-Amazon Reader
